

ESTRANGED PAIR MEET SHOPPING, ARE RECONCILED

Mrs. Grace D. Layman and J. Walter Layman, who have been estranged for some time, met by chance in the shopping district yesterday. The wife invited her husband to take an automobile ride with her. Arriving home they discussed their differences and decided to go to the court to settle their differences. The court was adjourned until the 15th inst. when the case will be heard. The Laymans have departed on a second honeymoon.

JAYNE PLAN TO HAVE ATTENTION

protested that the terminal would be a river steamship and the causeway would prohibit the passage of small craft as well as larger craft that might desire to pass east of Goat Island. The development committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce has protested against the plan on the ground that it would "bottle up" Oakland's western waterfront.

BUILDING TIE-UP THREATENS S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Upon the result of several meetings scheduled for today will depend a possible tie-up of all the building industries in San Francisco city and county. An ultimatum from the Builders' Exchange is to the effect that a lockout will follow refusal of the men to return to work tomorrow in agreement with what the Exchange says is the "established scale."

Railway Manager on Way to Convention

W. R. Alberger, general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, left today for Atlantic City to the annual conference of the American Association of Electric Railway. The meeting will be held on November 10. Problems which will affect all the electric railways in this country will be discussed at the conference. Alberger is president of the California Electric Railway Association and is also a member of the American Association.

ALAMEDA ELKS TO TAKE SHIP

Delegates from the local lodge of Elks will leave tomorrow for the state convention at Sacramento on a special train on the San Francisco and Sacramento shortline railroad. The Oakland Lodge is taking a special interest in the convention this year owing to the position of state president held by Past Exalted Ruler James M. Shanley. Colonel J. A. Jutter and the team that won the national championship for this city several years ago, will compete in the state competition this year, which has added further interest. The Big Brother band will also compete for state honors.

Suits are Popular Again!

And their prices at Friedman's begin to look like old times. Women can come here and enjoy the enthusiasm of new suits with the knowledge that their selection is no longer handicapped by the barrier of rising prices. The new fall suits priced at $45, $47.50, $50, $52.50 demonstrate our value giving.

Included in the new showings are styles for girls and small women—the short flared coats for the miss, the longer coats for the more matronly.

All the wonderful new shades in velours, tricelines, broadcloths, velour d'elaines.

Little narrow belted effects, embroidery and fur trimmed in seeline, nutria, Australian opossum, squirrel and mole.

LIBERAL CREDIT TERMS

The Friedman Liberal Credit Plan is just the usual Charge Account, except that we arrange the payments covering a period to suit YOUR convenience. Easy—simple—no formalities.

HALF-FARE PLEA TURNED DOWN BY TRACTION CHIEF

A letter advising the mayor that the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway cannot see its way to grant half fares for school children, and suggesting that on reflection the officials might not see reason to press the matter, was read before the council this morning from W. R. Alberger, general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway. The next move, according to city officials, is a possible appeal to the Railroad Commission, though it is admitted that the commission is now so full of Oakland railroad cases that a hearing on this subject might be far away.

COUNCIL DEBATES PROPOSED BONDS

The City Council met in special session late today to consider the placing of the museum, dredging, park and sewer project bonds at the coming election.

The various committees appointed by the Mayor have recommended:

For the purchase of park lands from Treble Glen to Redwood Park, $999,500.

For the dredging of Lake Merritt and rewatering by a high-pressure system from the bay, $680,000.

For the purchase of a site and construction of a museum building, $500,000.

For the construction of an improved sewer system, $754,000.

The amount of all the proposed bond issues comes to $1,934,000.

Home of Ethel Moore Filled With Mourners at Funeral

Funeral services for Miss Ethel Moore, woman leader in California, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of her father, A. A. Moore, in East Oakland. Hundreds of friends gathered at the family home to pay their respects to the well known civic and social worker, educational authority and recreational expert. Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, conducted the simple rites, in which a male quartet, composed of Lowell Redfield, Carl Anderson, Clement Rowlands and Clarence Oliver participated.

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills college, Miss Anna Florence Brown, Mrs. Cornelia McKinnis Stanwood, Mr. F. M. Smith, Dr. Millicent Cogswave, Miss Emma Wellman, Miss Cornelia Fringle and Miss Katherine Spiers, of whom have been intimately identified with Miss Moore in her public and private life, acted as honorary pallbearers, with Wallace M. Alexander, Charles D. Bates, Dr. Daniel Crosby, Dixwell Davenport, Cleveland Forbes, Horace Mill, B. H. Penileton and Bernard Ransome. The interment was private.

Memorial services for Miss Moore who for five years has been trustee of Mills college, were held at chapel in Linger Hall this morning. Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president, and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell Potter, president of Mills College, both closely identified with Miss Moore in her educational efforts, were the speakers. The Mills college vested choir participated in the memorial.

"No woman in Oakland or in California," Dr. Reinhardt declared before the student body, "is a better example to young women of the accomplishment of an unostentatious life than Miss Ethel Moore." "Not by much speaking but by daily and hourly doing of the task at hand she has won the admiration and respect of others and saw some into being organizations for the greater happiness and justice to her fellow beings. To this day visitors to Vassar from the west learn that Ethel Moore in her freshman year in the early 90's typified to the Vassar Faculty western girlhood in its honesty, purpose, industry, habits and co-operation."

FOUNDED SETTLEMENT.
Dr. Reinhardt referred to her founding of Oakland Social Settlement the year of her graduation, her work in the recreation department, her efforts toward better public health through the health center and tuberculosis society, her advocacy of woman's suffrage, and educational service in the Association of Collegiate Alumnae and as a trustee of Mills College. Miss Moore's leadership in war work during the lines of food conservation, government of army and navy, bond drives, and relief were referred to by the college president.

"Since June 15, 1915, Mills College has profited through her splendid ability and her leadership in all forward movements and has lost a noble friend in her death," Dr. Reinhardt concluded.

Dr. Reinhardt omitted the regular Wednesday afternoon literary lecture on the campus this afternoon and the hall tea was suspended in memory of the college trustee.

PRINTING OFFICE CASE IS QUASHED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 6.—For lack of prosecution the charges against Carleton Johnson, head of the proof room of the state printing department, were dismissed yesterday by the state civil service commission. Had the hearing proceeded, Johnson's attorneys made it known, they intended to make every effort to bring into the official records the charges made by Johnson against Robert Telfer, state printer, and which had preceded the information alleging insubordination and inefficiency lodged by Telfer against Johnson.

Telfer, shortly after the information against Johnson was filed, offered to Governor Stephens his resignation as state printer.

Further action by the civil service commission as regards the state printing office will be deferred until a new state printer is appointed. Members of the civil service commission said.

DRIVER OF DEATH AUTO IS HUNTED IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Rapid police investigation is under way to determine the identity of an automobile driver who last night ran down Peter Fitzgerald at Second and Natoma streets, causing injuries which resulted in Fitzgerald's death today at the Central Emergency hospital.

Fitzgerald was found lying in the gutter by two men on an express wagon. He was removed to the Central Emergency hospital. After giving his name as Peter Fitzgerald and his address as 132 Market street, he lapsed into unconsciousness, remaining in that condition until he died. He was well dressed and was approximately 45 years old.

Before becoming unconscious Fitzgerald told the hospital surgeons he had been struck and hurled into the gutter by a rapidly moving automobile, the driver of which fled without rendering aid.

Mrs. Theresa Morgan, 1336 Forty-sixth avenue, was severely bruised and three passengers who were in her automobile narrowly escaped injury when the vehicle crashed head-on today with another automobile at Eighteenth and Geary streets. The driver of the automobile disappeared before the police could learn his identity.

TWICE ESCAPES DEATH

Miss Elsie Richards, who twice escaped death late yesterday when her automobile was struck by a western Pacific train at the Twenty-third avenue crossing, hurrying her into the path of an automobile, was pronounced only slightly injured today when physicians examined her bruises.

Miss Richards said she stalled her auto and that the train struck it just as she jumped. She landed in the path of an automobile driven by Dr. P. F. Abbott of the Central Bank building. Dr. Abbott took the girl to his office, where her injuries were treated. She was later taken to her home at 165 Jones street, Piedmont.

Nine-year-old Gertrude Helmeier, a school girl attending St. Joseph's school at 660 Forty-first street, was injured late yesterday afternoon when struck by an automobile while crossing the street at Forty-first and Grove. The machine was driven by Mrs. A. H. Kopperud, 4217 Foothill boulevard.

WOMAN INJURED

Struck down by a skidding auto truck while she was trying to board a Southern Pacific electric train at Seventh and Broadway at 6:35 a. m. today, Mrs. C. M. Elliott, 60 years old, a dressmaker, living at 2859 Linden avenue, was taken to the Emergency hospital with lacerations of the legs and body.

Mrs. Elliott was on her way to work when she was struck down. The front wheels had to be pushed back off her legs to extricate her. Despite the severe shock she regained consciousness and is recovering rapidly.

Supreme Court Gets Appeal on Suffrage

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The constitutionality of the suffrage amendment was brought before the United States Supreme Court today when Charles S. Fairchild of the American Constitutional League filed an appeal from the decision of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, refusing to grant an injunction against the enforcement of the suffrage amendment.

MOVIE ACTRESS GETS PUBLICITY BY NEW STUNT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Doublons? No. Spanish senora seeking treasure trove? No. Movie actress and press agent? Yes.

That's about all there is to the story of "Mercedes Cortez," who dug up a chest of "gold at Land's End."

The actress is Miriam Shelby. Her hoax and publicity raid were carefully stage managed. Miriam blew into a hotel a few days ago with everything but castles, declaring herself a "lone" descendant of the one and only Hernando Cortez.

Reporters crowded, Miriam gushed or shed tears, as needed, suppers wielded spades and lo! a chest box.

Incidentally business was combined with publicity, since the Land's End scene is to be part of a motion picture play.

But as must be admitted, it was a better story than the theft of a prima donna's diamonds.

PRICE CUTTING IN MOTORS IS OVER

By JIM HOULIHAN.

The decisive downward trend of automobile prices which was expected to follow Henry Ford's cleverly timed declaration has not come, but at this time, is it likely to occur? The storm of ten days ago is clearing up and the atmosphere is assuming a more stable aspect as statements continue to come from the large manufacturers.

Except for a possible few instances there isn't likely to be made in the next month or two any additional reductions, certainly not among the standard manufacturers.

CHEVROLET WON'T BE CUT

General Motors Corporation is the one institution that other producers have been looking to for advice and this bill-dollar combination has declared, through one of its subsidiaries, the Chevrolet Motor Company, that prices on the Chevrolet product will not be lowered before next May.

It changed manufacturing conditions enable us, in the intervening period, to reduce our prices we shall rebate to every purchaser, from this time forward, the difference between present and future prices.

Unconfirmed rumor also states that several other General Motors divisions are following the same policy in a few days.

NASH PRICES UNCHANGED

Nash Motors, one of the popular builders declares today, that its product is fair priced, that they have not profited when the chance came to do so, hence under existing conditions lower prices can't be expected from them.

DODGE WILL HOLD PRICE

Howard B. Rector, general manager in Oakland, states today that confirming advice have come to them from C. W. Matheson, vice general sales manager of the Dodge Brothers' interests, which say firmly that Dodge Brothers' motor cars will not come down. The factory statement to the Harrison Company goes on to say:

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers' motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory, has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present prices. In marketing their cars Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

What further news will come later in the week is of course unknown, but the guess is well founded which thinks that no other of the big makers have any more bombs to drop into the automobile buying market.

WOMEN of Great Eastbay

Many to Cross Bay for Church Wedding

Several weddings about the bay and in the east scheduled to take place this afternoon or evening interest Eastbay friends. At the church of St. Vincent de Paul in San Francisco, the marriage of Miss Adele Chevalier, one of the most charming of San Francisco's debutantes, and Theodore Rethers Jr., was solemnized at high noon. A wedding breakfast was served the immediate members of the bridal party later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Chevalier in Pacific avenue.

In the bridal party were Miss Catherine Stoney, maid of honor, and a quartet of bridesmaids, including the Misses Claire Knight, Janice Ewer, Elsie Leicester and Catherine Mackall. Frank Rethers was best man for his brother and the ushers Messrs. Frederick Boone, Charles Rethers, Preston Baillie and Harry Rethers. Miss Chevalier was married in a handsome bridal gown of soft white satin, simply draped, with which was worn a bridal veil of silk Chantilly lace, an heirloom in the family. The costume was complete with a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Catherine Stoney, maid of honor, was gown in blue taffeta and silver with picture hat to harmonize with her gown. Miss Knight and Miss Mackall wore gowns of pink satin and Miss Ewer and Miss Leicester were in lavender satin.

All carried staffs topped with tulle bows in place of the customary bride's bouquet.

American War Mothers in Oakland will organize tomorrow afternoon. Every mother who has a son or a daughter in the war, whether it was at home or overseas, is summoned to unite herself with this valiant body of motherhood, which is undertaking to commemorate the mothers who have suffered anxiety and loss and to uphold the principles of justice, freedom and democracy and to promote peace and goodwill. Oakland war mothers will meet in one of the smaller halls in the Municipal Auditorium at 2:30 p. m. to perform their historical act of organization.

The national convention of American War Mothers will be held in Sacramento, October, 1921, prompting the strengthening of the state group. The national body is incorporated for 20 years. At the expiration of time the charter will pass to the granddaughters.

State officers will be guests at the organization meeting, placing before the local mothers the ideal and purposes for which they stand.

GIRLS' QUICK WIT DURING HOLD-UP THWARTS THUGS

Gertie Hersch, daughter of Herman Hersch, who conducts a grocery store at 751 Eleventh street, saved her father several hundred dollars by her courage and quick wit early today when held up by two armed negroes who threatened her with death if she failed to give them all cash on hand.

Miss Hersch was in the front of the store when the two negroes came in. One asked for doughnuts.

When Miss Hersch stepped out from behind the counter, she faced an automatic pistol.

"Keep your hands up," was the command.

Miss Hersch was compelled to open the cash register for them, but not until her protests and play for time brought her father from the rear of the building.

Hersch was immediately "covered." The negroes got $23.

"Is that all?" one asked. "Yes," she said, leaning back against an obscure drawer in the counter in which there was several hundred dollars.

GRAND JURY WILL SIFT BOOTLEGGING IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Federal investigation into the alleged existence of what has been described as an extensive bootlegging organization illegally withdrawing huge amounts of money from the bonded warehouses will begin tomorrow as a session of the federal grand jury. Federal officials expressed the belief the jury will convene every second day until its survey has been completed.

It is understood that scores of persons, including government operatives, liquor dispensers and others, are being investigated in connection with the alleged traffic in liquor for beverage purposes as to appear before the grand jury.

It was pointed out today that a provision of the prohibition law specifically provides that a person appearing before a federal grand jury as a witness cannot later be prosecuted as a defendant in the violation under investigation by the jurors. Under this ruling, it was declared, persons now under suspicion will not be summoned to appear.

That the investigation will be determined in nature and wide in scope was indicated by the presence in the postoffice building today of prohibition enforcement and internal revenue officials to attend a conference with Frank M. Silva, United States attorney.

Withdrawals from the bonded warehouses, which are in fact in the possession of the government, show an amazing increase. It is stated, and thus coupled with reports that the liquor is being illegally taken from the custody of the government, has been responsible for setting in motion a decisive, aggressive federal investigation.

Von Brincken Goes to Claim Estate Left Him in Denmark

Roger Beckwith, the former Lieut. Wilhelm von Brincken, with his bride, is en route to Denmark to claim a title and vast estates left to him through the death of an uncle, according to news which has reached here. Beckwith, who has become an American citizen, has sent back word that he would relinquish the old title and dispose of the ancestral properties, assemble his entire family and return to California to make his home. He has forsworn diplomacy and military affairs and professed ambitions to devote himself to agricultural pursuits.

Romance marked his second marriage with Mrs. Ruth McConnell Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. McConnell, prominent lawyer in Southern California, and herself a beautiful young divorcee. Long before von Brincken came to America he had seen the young American girl at various European resorts. Then the German officer was transferred to San Francisco and he proceeded to forget her face in his courtship of Miss Abernethy, who afterward became his wife and later divorced him.

In April, after his release as a military prisoner from McNeil's Island, the American traveler and Beckwith met for the first time in San Francisco at the home of a mutual friend, Mrs. L. C. Eskridge. The wedding was postponed until Mrs. Swartz received her final decree of divorce. The couple were married in Canada a month ago.

In the midst of the honeymoon came the message from Mme. C. von Brincken to her son that a maternal uncle had died, leaving him help to vast estates in Denmark. Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith sailed immediately for Europe.

Jenkins had been an inmate of the Missouri State penitentiary, of Alcatraz military prison and was on probation in this county. He said that he loaned Johnson $75 for $5 a day interest at Johnson's shop. One day he was left in charge and "just nacherly" took his own money for the first time in San money.

That the investigation will be determined in nature and wide in scope was indicated by the presence in the postoffice building today of prohibition enforcement and internal revenue officials to attend a conference with Frank M. Silva, United States attorney.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for infants and children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

"DANDERINE"

Girls! Save Your Hair!
Make It Abundant!

Immediately after a "Danderine" massage, your hair takes on new life, lustre and wondrous beauty, appearing twice as heavy and plentiful, because each hair seems to fluff and thicken. Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, plain and scraggly. You, too, want lots of long, strong, beautiful hair.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful glossy, silky hair do by all means get rid of dandruff for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arton, apply it at night when retiring use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arton at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

Cry on Geraldine's Shoulder

If you have a tear to shed, a laugh to share or a view to air, write to Geraldine. She and her shoulder BELONG TO YOU. Letters will be answered through this column. If you desire a private answer, enclose a stamped and addressed envelope.

They used to tell me Accumulation of tears would be a tragic business. They were all wrong. With every year I get a bigger kick out of life. If you have only lived a few years you can't make many comparisons. You've only yourself to think of which is mighty dull business. But as the years gather and the landscape widens you see more and more funny things taking place along the way. The funniest thing of all is HUMANS. And the funniest thing about humans is that they don't know how they're funny. Take these Charlie Chaplin mistakes for instance. They're not so humorous in themselves. They're just more or less hair—mostly less. It's the attitude of their wearers assuming that appeals to my sensibilities. Also the Groucho boys give Senior Members of the Club. You'd think, from their proud air of possession that the owners of these Tuffed Twiddles had produced the last word in modern achievement. Young fathers have nothing on them. A triplet could be no grander feat. On the other hand the Senior Members sneer as though they had unearthed a degenerate.

Times Have Changed
"Would we have permitted anything like that to escape the City Pound in OUR day?" say they. We would not. They forget. In THEIR day they went in for Weeping Willows. Yards and yards of hair mostly dyed flutted in front of their Adam's apples on entangled itself with the Snooty Soft Boiled Egg. How do I know? That's where the years come in. Coyly I admit it—I was born in the Day of the Mustache Cup. And though once that change men don't. It's a merry life if you wait long enough to see the styles change. And speaking of MEN—here he is!

Seeks Information
Dear Geraldine: I wonder if there's room on your shoulder for mere man. Not that I would weep—oh no—I'll leave that to the gentler sex. But you dishes according to your taste or pocketbook. Most of us act on the latter motive. "Table d'hôte" means that you pay a set price and eat any or all of the courses outlined on the card. It would be perfectly proper for two gals of twenty-two to dine in public alone. It might be best to choose a fairly early dinner hour. You need not feel awkward about any of it, Pal. It's just like the supper at the church fairs used to be "down home." You eat all you can, and they take all they can—and that's all. Here's to you! Think of me when you get to the oysters!

Carlisle Graduate Held as Hen Thief

EDMUND C. CARLISLE, 23, of Niles, Bernard Gordon, an Indian and a graduate of Carlisle, was brought to jail in Oakland. The charge against him is burglary. Frank Shea, deputy district attorney, arrested him. The allegations are that Gordon had a card on which he had caused to be printed a statement that he was deaf and dumb from shell shock, that he presented this at homes and legged and when there was no one at home he entered and took what he wanted. But there are war veterans and war veterans. Some one at Niles questioned Gordon's card activity. It is in fact that Shea saw Gordon holding through a hedge as the conceiver happened to pass. It was Shea who pulled the Indian out of the hen's boudoir and drove him to Oakland.

Cigarettes Barred to Long Beach Police

LONG BEACH, Oct. 6.—Long Beach policemen firemen and other municipal employees under the civil service, including among many others the city health officer may not smoke cigarettes even at home or when on a Sunday motor trip. City Attorney George L. Hoodenpiave gave an opinion today, at the request of the Civil Service Commission's secretary, that the anti-cigarette regulation in new rules applies to employees whether on duty or not. Hoodenpiave said that the rule is said to have caused a small revolution in the police department and leave Long Beach with but the fragments of a force.

ROOSEVELT QUILTS SHIPPING CONCERN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—No approval has been given by the Shipping Board to the Hamburg-American Ship and Commerce Corporation contract for operation of American ships on the former German trade routes. Chairman Benson says. Benson says it has his personal approval, however. "I am not secretary of the American Ship and Commerce Corporation before its absorption by the Harriman interests, after a conference with Chairman Benson declared his withdrawal from the concern was just the best thing that could happen to some new elements" in the company. The French government has asked the United States for information regarding the course to be followed by the Shipping Board in putting former German passenger ships on the German trade routes, it was said at the State Department. No protest has been made, officials said, but the French government wished to be informed concerning reports through transfer of the former enemy liners to the American Ship and Commerce Corporation the vessel eventually would find their way back to their former owners, the Hamburg-American line.

Cuticura Healed Red Pimples All Over Face, Neck, Hands

"There were small, red pimples all over my face, neck and hands, and I could scarcely put a pin-point on my face without touching one. They itched and itched so I would scratch them until they bled and I could not sleep nights. I was really ashamed for any one to see me. "I used several remedies without success. For three months this trouble lasted and I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and after six weeks I was healed and I only used three boxes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. (Signed) Miss Ola B. O'Brien, Box 23, Dawson, N. Mex., March 22, 1920. MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

What Madge Read in Lillian's

Seemingly Idle Words.

Indeed, we had not even locked the doors in the two nights we had thus far spent in the house. But I privately resolved, even as I scored myself for my cowardice, that I would personally fasten every lock hereafter.

"It is ideally quiet," I hastened to make the banal response, afraid that Lillian would detect my momentary panic. But I might have saved my effort.

"What's on your mind, old dear?"

she inquired with a face such, after a moment's scrutiny of me. "Afraid your friend, Mr. Hambridge or Bridgeham, or whatever he happens to call himself now, may decide to make us a little visit."

"I haven't once thought of him," I replied indignantly and truthfully, although once she had spoken I realized that my tremors might very well be the subconscious result of my secret terror of the man she named.

"Well, if you haven't you will soon," Lillian retorted, "if you begin to let yourself get woozy on the subject of loneliness. Don't think I'm blaming you. You've had nervous strain enough this summer to make you into a whining weakling. But if I know you—and I think I do—you'll pound any stray general terrors you have into a pulp.

"But at that I think you'd better stick around close to me for a few days until you pull yourself together.

Your father will be a regular dragon as far as Marion is concerned, so I'll have no worry over her. And I want you to get your nerves into shape as soon as possible. Therefore, there's no use of your running any risk of imagining some stray fisherman is some world-infamous crook in disguise. Quod est demonstrandum."

She spoke lightly, carelessly—indeed her carelessness was almost too elaborate to my excited imagination.

I wondered if she perhaps suspected some danger, or at least unpleasantness menacing us, and meant to keep me with her for that reason.

"Oh, mother! oh, Auntie Madge!

Grandpa Spencer has promised to take me fishing, out in the great big boat, if you'll only let me, won't you?"

Marion ran up the steps of the screened veranda, dripping from her morning plunge into the bay. She was fairly dancing up and down in her excitement. Behind her my father, who had followed more leisurely, was smiling at her in fond indulgence, yet with a sheepish smile upon his face which Lillian promptly and mischievously interpreted.

"There's the real culprit, Madge," she said. "So you've caught the fever at last," she addressed him with simulated earnestness, "and are making me innocent cheer the shield for your folly."

Marion giggled appreciatively. She is used to her mother's badinage and does not often take it seriously.

"I'll admit that those men out there are getting my goat," my father admitted with what was for him a surprising use of slang. "They seem to be pulling in fish almost all the time. I'd like to get into the game before they get all of the fish in the bay."

"They're certainly persistent," Lillian said fully, looking out to the bay.

An inflection in her voice caught my attention, so used am I to every intimation of my friend.

I recalled that she had spent much time watching the two boats with the persistent fishermen to whom my father had referred that there might be something unusual in the fact of the same two boats occurring about the same position relative to each other for three consecutive days. They were anchored in the middle of the bay, too far from us for anything save the figures of the men to be distinguished, and at a similarly long distance from each other.

As I looked back over the three days, much of which I had spent in luxurious and needed rest upon the veranda couch, I realized that one boat evidently had been keeping out of the way of the other. The boat nearest to us had more than once started in the direction of the other one, and the second had promptly pulled up anchor and chugged farther away, to come back to its original position later when the first boat was safely out of the way.

We had commented upon this fact with lazy mirth, knowing the childish jealousy of fishermen, wondering why the occupants of the first boat had not stood on their "fishermen's rights" and warned off the others from their favorite grounds.

But the inflection of Lillian's voice had conveyed to me for the first time a possible answer to the question, although one so ridiculous, so bizarre, that I persuaded myself almost instantly that I was mistaken, and turned my attention to my father, who, I saw with surprise, was also looking intently, not at the distant boats, but at Lillian's face.

WHY FIELD GLASSES?

Without turning her head, although was sure that she was aware of our scrutiny, she asked casually:

"Who is going to row you?"

"A sturdy daughter of the bay,"

Mrs. Ticer, my father responded,

"and her son Jerry. They live about a half mile from here, own a good boat, and are very glad to make a little money by taking out fishing parties. Do you girls want to come along?"

"What do you say, Madge?" Lillian's voice was so casual, her face so devoid of any unusual expression as she turned to me that I scored my imagination for its folly in suspecting that she saw anything worthy of watching in the maneuvers of the two boats.

"Oh, I'd love it!" I returned fervently. "I've been salt water fishing only two or three times, and then I didn't catch anything."

"You'll catch enough today," my father said. "The bottle fish and the king fish are simply yearning for the hook, according to my friend, Mrs. Ticer."

TIGERS, ANGELS AND SEALS ARE STAGING EXCITING RACE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE P. C. L.

THREE-CORNERED RACE BEING STAGED FOR COAST LEAGUE FLAG

Many Promising Youngsters Pitching in the Jungles Awaiting the Once-Over By Scouts

By EDDIE MURPHY.
The Vernon, San Francisco and Los Angeles clubs are doing their best to give the baseball fans a run for their money by staging one of the prettiest three-club arguments to be witnessed in the Coast League for many seasons. The Seals and Tigers both came through with wins yesterday in the only two games played in the Coast League, and the Tigers still lead by two and a half games, with the Seals and Angels tied for second place. But for some tough breaks for Ernie Johnson's Salt Lake Bees in the last month and a half the race might be a four-club affair. It was only a short while ago that the Seals were counted out of the argument and the Bees, Angels or Tigers were the contenders.

The Bees have lost twenty-six out of their last thirty-eight games. It certainly was tough to have things break for Ernie Johnson as he did, for he had made good as a manager. For a while it looked as though the Bees would continue the brave fight for the Coast League championship, but once the club started on the down grade they could not stop. The absence of Johnson and Stagner from the team was a heavy blow, and the club itself was out of the game and everyone knows what strength is taken out of the Bees when Ernie is not there.

Angels Started Bees Down the Toboggan

August 24 saw the Bees hit the toboggan by dropping five out of seven games to the Angels. The Angels, who came down from Salt Lake, and the Bees were next to drop to the Angels in the percentage column by taking four out of six games. The trip to the northwest was made by the Bees in the percentage column by taking four out of six games. THREE PROMINENT CITIZENS OF BROOKLYN, N. Y.

It has been the history of past world's series that there must be a "goat." Big Ed Konetchy, the gent at the left downstairs, started off nicely yesterday by picking up Burns' grounder and throwing it so far into left field that the runner scored. That tally was enough to defeat the Dodgers yesterday. In the center is Al Mamux, the pitching gentleman who fanned the side after he relieved Marquard. Last time the Dodgers appeared in the big series Ivan Olson was the "goat." Ivan is shown at the right.

St. Mary's and U. C. to Clash at Berkeley

Local Collegians Training Hard; Line-Up Will Be Changed

The St. Mary's College football team, still smarting from the defeat at the hands of the Stanford team last Saturday, is hard at work in an attempt to build up an adequate defense for their game with California. Neither Hollander nor his men are offering alibis to explain away the exhibition of loose tackling displayed in Saturday's game. The St. Mary's men need plenty of hard work to make to their defense and backfield to correct this glaring fault. The backfield was woefully weak on Saturday, and a heap of criticism was heaped on the team for its inability to correct this glaring fault.

Cricket Player Sees Baseball For First Time

By H. NAPIER MOORE, British Cricket Expert.

(Written for the United Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—When the incognito—that term of amateur British cricketers—played a match in the vicinity of Walla Walla the other week their score for one unfinished inning was 473 runs. With conservatism, one might hazard that had they finished the inning their score would have been 500 runs.

87 Balls Were Pitched Over By Coveleski

By L. R. BLANCHARD, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Baseball of the Nth degree greeted the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday in the first game of the world series. Pitching, holding and a concerned attack at just the right spot of weakness in the Brooklyn defense gave Tris Speaker and his Cleveland Indians the victory.

Duffy Said to Be in Wonderful Condition for His Bout With Youngest Member of Shades

By BOB SHAND.
The dope from West Oakland is that the Hon. J. Duffy is "going to tear" this evening when he entertains Dave Shade at the Auditorium. James has been panned for paying more attention to the light fantastic stuff than to his training and the criticism has gotten under his skin. While not admitting the fact Jimmy believes that he has a right to step out and tear off a few dances when he feels like it and he doesn't think the terpsichorean stuff has affected his boxing. The customers think differently so the tip is that Jimmy is going to surprise some of the boys tonight and show up the others. Harold Algonzo Fitzgibbon Broom tried to bet twenty against thirty yesterday afternoon that Duffy would knock Shade down but he couldn't get any takers at that price. But it goes to show the confidence in the Duffy camp. They didn't feel that way the last few times James was on the card.

Joe Eagan Will Tackle Palmer; Murphy Injured

Jack Reeves vs. Cliff Jordan.
Kid Palmer vs. Joe Eagan.
Kid Herman vs. Danny Edwards.
Jack Daley vs. Dick Doolan.
Eddie Macey vs. Barry Fox.
Willie O'Keefe vs. Billy Wallace.

Total Vote for County This Fall May Exceed 120,000

Granting interest in the coming presidential election to equal that of 1916, the total vote in Alameda county this year may exceed 120,000. This is based upon estimates and figures furnished by the county registration office, presided over by Jacob Dimond, deputy county clerk under George E. Gross, county clerk.

BASED ON 1915 VOTE
The whole calculation is based upon the 1915 vote, which was 103,865 on a total registration of 133,751, a surprisingly large proportion of the registered voters appearing at the polls, as compared with more recent elections.

185 times - no difference!

Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd, famous concert soprano, has made this test 185 times. 185 public audiences, in 185 cities, have heard her compare her voice with its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. No one, out of a total of more than 100,000 listeners, has been able to tell when Miss Shepherd was singing, and when the New Edison—except by watching her lips.

What kind of music "gets" you?
Tell us—and we'll show you how all its emotional power is RE-CREATED by the New Edison

Is it the soulful violin?—a mellow contralto? the scintillating flute? a sweet, soothing tenor?—that draws the quickest emotional response from you.

Let us play your favorite voice or instrument in a new kind of Realism Test. See whether you are touched by the RE-

Perfect realism is your one vehicle to the inner world of music which you crave.

Mr. Edison spent three million dollars in the research work which gave the New Edison perfect realism. He did this in order that the phonograph might transcend its former limitations and of there we quote Mr. Edison's own words: "bring into every American home, in use so realistic and so perfect in its rendition as to be an unending source of benefit and pleasure."

Eastbay Departments to Aid Fire Prevention Day

Fighters of Flames Will March in Parade Here, Chief Announces

Plans for the demonstration, in which representatives of fire departments of Oakland, Berkeley, Emeryville, Alameda and Piedmont will take part, were completed today, according to an announcement made by Chief Elliott Whitehead.

Fire chiefs of the various districts have arranged for float entries, typical of various phases of disaster caused by fire, and other features of educational value for the parade.

Complete details of the various entries were not divulged, but it was made known that a representation of Mrs. O'Leary's cow, the animal that attained fame by a single swish of her tail, overturning the lantern that set fire to and destroyed two-thirds of Chicago, would adorn one of the floats. Another, it was said, would represent the usual results attending the use of matches as playthings. Several small caskets will silently drive home the seriousness of allowing this form of recreation in the home.

NATION IS CARELESS.

Led by Chief Whitehead and the Oakland Fire Department band, the procession will leave the assembly point at the corner of East Fourteenth street and Thirteenth avenue, proceed to Fruitvale, and thence to the other points represented in the contingent.

"We hope to bring home the realization of necessity in exercising the utmost care in the prevention of fires," said Whitehead today, "and believe the exhibits arranged by the various departments will prove of great value in attaining this end."

"Americans as a race are a careless people. However damaging this may be to our national egoism, it is true. Not that it cannot be remedied. It can, and I think will be, if sufficient attention is called to the need for fire prevention."

TEN COMMON REASONS.

"I have given ten common reasons for the average fire. There are at least forty. It will certainly be a large step in the right direction if the don'ts offered from time to time are more seriously considered by the average man and woman."

Details of a fire prevention campaign among children in the schools were related by the chief, among which, he said, a silent rebuke to the careless smoker was now in vogue.

"We have instructed the children in Oakland schools," Whitehead declared, "to quench with his or her heel the cigar or cigarette butt that they may see thrown, lighted to the street. Should they be accosted and an explanation demanded, we have advised them to reply:

"You mustn't seem to have enough interest in this city so that, of course, made it my duty."

Commissioner of Public Safety F. F. Morse has general charge of the demonstration.

ISSUES PROCLAMATION.

With the completion of plans for observance of the occasion, Governor William D. Stephens today issued a proclamation, designating Saturday as the official date for Fire Prevention Day, and urging co-operation on the part of all civic and business organizations.

The governor's statement, which calls attention to the great need for careful thought along lines of protection from fire, is as follows:

"Whereas, the destruction of life and property by fire in the United States amounts annually to an enormous total; and it is of the utmost importance that everything possible should be done to safeguard life and property throughout the nation from the ravages of fire; and whereas, statistics compiled by the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Pacific and national authorities on the subject show that the majority of fires are caused by carelessness and negligence and are preventable; and whereas, Fire Prevention Day should be preserved throughout the country in the prosecution of a national campaign to reduce fire losses;

"Now, therefore, I, William D. Stephens, governor of California, in conformity with the request of the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Pacific, do hereby designate Saturday, October 9, 1920, as Fire Prevention Day in the State of California and do most earnestly appeal to all State, municipal and fire insurance bodies to co-operate in the observance of that day to the end that fire losses in this State may be appreciably reduced during the coming years."

"WILLIAM D. STEPHENS, Governor."

ACTION IN ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 6.—Following the naming of October 9 as State Fire Prevention Day, Mayor Frank

Ten Most Common Reasons for Fires

Here are the ten most common causes believed by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead to be responsible for the fires that every day wreak death and destruction, because their prevention is not generally taken as a serious matter by those to whom it should mean most:

1. Allowing the accumulation of rubbish in basements, sheds, etc.
2. Leaving matches within the reach of small children.
3. Misuse of household electric appliances.
4. Failure to guard woodwork from stoves placed too close to walls.
5. Failure to extinguish burning tobacco after smoking.
6. The common use of matches instead of flashlights for illumination.
7. Carelessness in use of combustible liquids (gasoline, kerosene, etc.).
8. Hanging inflammable material near open gas jets.
9. Use of spark-throwing sulphur matches instead of the safety type.
10. Failure to clean flues and chimneys.

Oakland Kiddies to Be Guests Of Tribune at "Movie" Party

Kiddies of Oakland and vicinity will be the guests of The TRIBUNE'S Aunt Elsie and 50,000 clubs and John Wharry Lewis at the American Theater Saturday morning, when a big free moving picture show and entertainment will be given.

The picture to be shown is a special one which is sure to please all the kiddies. It is "The Soul of Youth," a delightful story of boyhood life, different from any picture which has been produced. Most of the leading parts are filled by clever boy and girl actors and actresses, and this alone is sure to be of interest to the youngsters.

The principal lead is played by Lewis Sargent, who, after his enviable success in the title role in the picture "Huckleberry Finn," is a real drawing card by himself, but there are others as noted, including young Ernest Butterworth, who is the new-boy companion of Lewis Sargent, and Elizabeth Jones, another youthful screen artist who, despite her tender years, has on many occasions played important roles. "The Soul of Youth" is altogether a wonderful youngsters' picture.

Besides the picture a number of professional singers and actors, to the tune of a number of The TRIBUNE'S clever juveniles, including Florie May Tyrrel, Bernice Claire Jahnnigen, Baby Betty June Teepie, Alberta Blair and Baby June Honey Lesser. They will be under the direction of Mrs. May Tyrrel and Beverly Swabey. A special number will be put on by Mrs. John Wharry Lewis, and John Wharry Lewis, Mabel Hatfield Turner and Bob McGinley, a clever impersonator, will also appear in special numbers for the kiddies.

Go on hand by 9:30 sharp, as the show starts by 9:45 sharp. Children under 10 must be accompanied by their parents or older brother or sister.

EXCHANGE WILL BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR S. P. DEPOT

Members of the Merchants' Exchange, at a meeting last night, decided to take an active hand in the matter of a new passenger street Southern Pacific electric terminal and, to that end, appointed Charles Beardsley, attorney, as representative.

Beardsley will go to the hearing Monday morning at 10 o'clock when the State Railway Commission, sitting in the council chambers at the Oakland city hall, will review the terminal matter.

The exchange voiced itself indirectly as being of the opinion that not enough public sentiment was being expressed in relation to the project.

The exchange elected George Sheldon as a director.

It also voted, with the Chamber of Commerce, to advance money to the Charles Endorsement Committee that that body might undertake getting its printed matter under way.

An investigation of the automobile stage retorting question has been made and a report made the exchange last night was that one stage line alone was bringing 30,000 shoppers a month to the city. The merchants are in favor of assisting operation of the stage and it was the general sentiment of the meeting that care should be taken that no stumbling block be put in the way of the bus lines.

SQUEAKY CHAIR DRIVES COUNCIL TO BACCUS' AID

In the midst of all the storm and strife concerning Petersen, West Oakland vice, gambling, western waterfront leases, Lake Merritt, bond elections, school plumbing, the dredger and other knotty problems, the City Council is considering the matter of taking up Commissioner Baccus' chair, and looking into it.

The council has come to a point where someone has to oil that chair or move the council to some other room.

In the midst of the sage deliberations of that august body, Baccus' jiggles in the chair and it goes squeak, squeak, squeak till the rumbling of City Clerk Cummings' voice is lost and the commissioners hardly know what measures they are passing.

"I've tried to get action about that chair," says Petersen, but apparently the City of Oakland is out of oil. I've given up trying."

The matter, it is understood, will probably be referred to the commissioner of public works.
